

Advancement Trail from Tiger to Arrow of Light

USING BSA THE 2006 EDITION

3 Achievements=1 Gold Bead
represented by the 4 sets of Wolf prints
(59 tracks through all 12 Achievements)
This program is during 2nd Grade

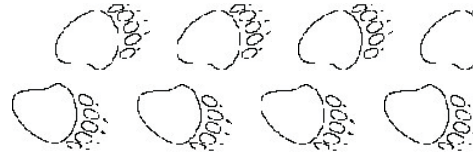

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

- These are awarded after the Wolf Badge is earned
- For the first 10 electives a Gold arrow is earned
- For every 10 electives afterwards a Silver arrow is earned

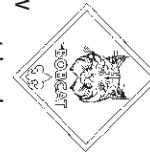

If a Boy joins Cub Scouts now his first badge will be the Bobcat badge

3 Achievements=1 Gold Bead
represented by the 4 sets of Bear prints
(81 tracks through all 12 Achievements)
This program is during 3rd Grade

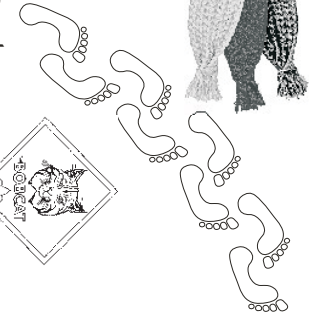

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

- These are awarded after the Bear Badge is earned
- For the first 10 electives a Gold arrow is earned
- For every 10 electives afterwards a Silver arrow is earned

If a Boy joins Cub Scouts now his first badge will be the Bobcat badge

Earned Activity Pins are placed on Webelos Colors

There are 8 requirements to earn the Webelos Badge

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

There are 4 requirements to earn the Compass Badge

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

- For every 4 activity badges earned a Scout earns a metal "compass point" (only 3 total)

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

Ceremony to award the Scout his advancement

There are 8 tracks to complete the Bobcat trail

If a Boy joins Cub Scouts now his first badge will be the Bobcat badge.

There are 15 Tiger paws achievements (5 white beads for family activities, 5 orange beads for den activities and 5 black beads for Go See It activities. After the Tiger earns all 15 beads he receives his Tiger patch to put on the back side of his Tiger Cub Belt totem. The Tiger can earn 1 yellow Tiger track beads for every 10 electives he completes. This program is during 1st Grade

There are 6 requirements to earn the Arrow of Light

One of them is that a Scout must earn the Webelos Badge and a total of 8 Activity badges that include: Fitness, Citizen, Readyman, One from the Outdoor group, one from the Mental Skills group, one from the Technology group, and 2 more of your choice